

Standard Form

Spot quiz · 11 marks total

Name: _____

Date: _____

Section A — Writing numbers in standard form

1. A red blood cell is $8\text{ }\mu\text{m}$ across. Write this in metres, using standard form.

[2 marks]

2. A virus is 30 nm across. Write this in metres, using standard form.

[2 marks]

3. A bacterium is 0.000004 m wide. Write this in standard form.

[2 marks]

Section B — Converting standard form back

4. Convert $6 \times 10^{-6}\text{ m}$ to micrometres.

[2 marks]

5. Convert $1.5 \times 10^{-4}\text{ m}$ to millimetres.

[2 marks]

6. Write $9 \times 10^{-5}\text{ m}$ as an ordinary number, in metres.

[1 mark]